Three days in paradise: Planning your own vacation as an EFL exercise

Tom Fast — Okayama Gakugeikan High School

Name:		Date:
Project: In groups of 2-3 choose a place you would like to spend 3 days. First think about what is important for you in a vacation destination and places you'd like to go. Then compare them with your partner. Finally, choose a destination and make a weekend itinerary. Introduce your place, describe what you'll be doing there, where you'll be eating and staying. Also, find-out how much it will cost to get there and back. You may choose someplace you've already been.
Grading: This assignment is a big part of your final grade (50%). You will be graded specifically on: Writing: Grammar; Content; Clean; On time? Speaking: Physical Message; Script; Volume; Intonation; Answers to questions Feedback: Pair work; Questions; Summary
Things a good vacation destination should have: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 	Places you'd like to visit: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. 2. 3. 4. 5.
Introduction: Pull the listener in. Make them want to go! Show picture and map.	Write your ideas here and create a basic presentation outline
Friday: What will you do? Where will you eat? After dinner?
Saturday: Breakfast, lunch, dinner activities

Sunday: 1 meal, 1 activity
Hotel/Airfare: Describe where you'll stay and how you'll get there.

Can you answer these questions about your destination?

1. What is the weather like?
2. When is the best season to go?
3. Are there any major festivals?
4. Is there any danger?
5. Do I need to pack anything special?
6. Why did you choose this place?
7. What can I buy there?
8. What is it famous for?
