

TLT RESOURCES

MY SHARE

Blah blah: Interactive contextualised vocabulary review

Douglas Hamano-Bunce, Asia University

Appendix A

The Government has repeatedly vowed to protect the NHS.	Andrew Lansley MP is the Shadow Health Secretary.	Both parties plan to take the knife to critical investment.	We can also pledge that spending will continue to rise.
Hand on heart, Alistair Darling appeared to promise no end to the times of plenty.	Figures unearthed by Channel Four News reveal that cash for capital spending will be cut.	Projects across the country, including in Liverpool, Bristol, and Stanmore, are under threat.	The Government now stands accused of concealing the full extent of the cuts ahead.
But to make ends meet, the NHS looks set to bulldoze capital projects.	...rebuilding or refurbishments and even crucial kit like x-ray machines.	But they know further cuts in the next few years will be hard to swallow.	Money for the likes of doctors, nurses, and medicines is being safeguarded.
Gordon Brown keeps disguising the fact that they are planning cuts.	It's fallen victim to the soaring capital costs of a neighbouring hospital.	... the party leaders trading blows over where the axe will fall in the public sector.	But the public may well be more tolerant so long as existing services aren't jeopardised.
	Health managers hope to sugar the pill with this brand-new Polyclinic.	The budget for capital investment is to be slashed by twenty-two percent.	The contribution from private finance is expected to almost halve.

Appendix B

The Government has repeatedly _____ to protect the NHS.	Andrew Lansley MP is the _____ Health _____.	Both parties plan to _____ the _____ to critical investment.	We can also _____ that spending will continue to rise.
_____ on _____, Alistair Darling appeared to promise no end to the times of plenty.	Figures _____ by Channel Four News reveal that cash for capital spending will be cut.	Projects across the country, including in Liverpool, Bristol, and Stanmore, are _____.	The Government now stands accused of _____ the full extent of the cuts ahead.
But to _____, the NHS looks set to bulldoze capital projects.	...rebuilding or refurbishments and even crucial _____ like x-ray machines.	But they know further cuts in the next few years will be _____ to _____.	Money for the likes of doctors, nurses, and medicines is being _____.
Gordon Brown keeps _____ the fact that they are planning cuts.	It's fallen victim to the _____ capital costs of a neighbouring hospital.	... the party leaders trading blows over where the _____ will _____ in the public sector.	But the public may well be more tolerant so long as existing services aren't _____.
	Health managers hope to _____ the _____ with this brand-new Polyclinic.	The budget for capital investment is to be _____ by twenty-two percent.	The contribution from private finance is expected to almost _____.