

Use the words below to complete the text.

Charge Defence Commit Arrest Trial Jury Verdict Evidence Sentence Witnesses Prosecution Innocent Guilty

In the UK when a person is believed to have 1_____ted a crime, e.g. murder, the police will look for that person. If they catch him they will 2_____ him. After the person is 2_____ed he may be 3_____d with 1_____ting a crime, e.g. murder. Then there will be a 4_____ in a court. In a 4_____ there are two sets of lawyers. The 5_____ lawyer will try to prove that the defendant is 6_____. On the other hand, the 7_____ lawyer will try to prove the defendant is 8_____. Both sides will use 9_____ and 10_____ to support their argument. Usually a 11_____ of twelve persons will decide the 12_____. If the defendant is found 6_____ the judge will then decide the 13_____.