

Appendix A – Example list of statements

Everyone should work in another country for one year.

Money is more important than enjoying our work.

We should all retire at 50.

To have one job our whole life is best.

Volunteer work is a waste of time.

All university courses should include practical work experience.

Appendix B – Example follow-up handout

Everyone should work in another country for 1 year.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * I want to go to a good place. * We can have interesting experiences. * We can make a lot of different friends. * We can learn a lot of new things. * We can make good business contacts. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Communication can be difficult. * I love Japan. / I'd miss Japan. * We might have to spend a lot of money. * It is hard to be away from friends. * It could be expensive.

Money is more important than enjoying our work.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can buy anything we want. * We can do all the things we want to do. * We can enjoy our free time more. * Money can make us comfortable. * Work is just about money and business. * We need money to live. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can make good friends at work if we enjoy ourselves. * Working too hard is stressful. * We spend a lot of time at work, so we should have fun. * If we have fun, we can work better. * If we are stressed, we can't continue working. * Money can make people selfish.

We should all retire at 50.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can enjoy a long retirement. * Old people lose strength. * Japanese people spend too much time at work. * Most people don't work as well when they get old. * We can find new friends. * We can go travelling and enjoy our free time. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We should be able to continue if we want. * It is too early to quit. * It would be boring. * We can still work well. * It is just waiting for death. * We might not have enough money. * Our pensions would be small. * Our lives might not have any aim left.

To have one job our whole life is best.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can improve our work. * Our life work is more impressive. * We will be able to get promoted. * Our work will become easy. * It is safer and more stable. * We can get better insurance and pensions. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * It is very boring. * Having more choices is best. * We won't get many different experiences.

Volunteer work is a waste of time.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We don't get money. * We don't know when the work will finish. * We don't know if the work will help people. * We will feel tired after doing it. * Giving money to charity is easier. * It takes a long time. * We can use our time and strength in better ways. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can help other people. * We can get good experience. * We can meet new people. * A lot of people need our help. * It can make us healthier and stronger. * It can motivate us and give us passion. * We can feel better about ourselves. * People will thank us.

All university courses should include practical work experience.

Agree	Disagree
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We can learn the basic skills we need for work. * It's good experience for the future. * It will be easier for people when they start real jobs. * We can use the knowledge we get from classes. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> * We should be able to play while we are students. * We might need to pay to do an internship. * It can be far from our university or home. * University is for studying.