

Matching jobs and skills

Christopher Glick, Rikkyo University,
<chrisg@rikkyo.ac.jp>

Gakusei Job Placement

You and your partners are going to try to help each other find jobs. If a particular job doesn't match a person's skills, try to explain how the two are a good match. Be creative!

Table 1: Jobs

Die Roll	1	2	3	4	5	6
1	truck driver	photo-grapher	translator	psychiatrist	professor	doctor
2	park ranger	soldier	security guard	weather person	English teacher	host / hostess
3	nurse	architect	lawyer	DJ	juku teacher	stunt person
4	secretary	accountant	computer programmer	police officer	graphic artist	talento
5	model	gardener	sales clerk	musician	chef	writer
6	journalist	farmer	scientist	pro surfer	veterinarian	janitor

Table 2: Skills

Roll	1	2	3	4	5	6
1	like to work with my hands	good with children	can type very well	good with animals	strong	fashionable
2	like to work with others	like to work alone	speed reader	like computers	have a driver's license	excellent memory
3	have army, self-defense training	good at studying foreign languages	don't like to wear uniforms	happy to work in another city	like meeting and talking to people	enjoy being and working outdoors
4	don't need to sleep	early riser, up early	very creative	punctual, never late	like helping people	good at math
5	speak fluent English	good at paperwork	like to take charge	like to study & research	good attention to detail	good musical ability
6	can write well & clearly	great artistic ability	like sports, am athletic	don't need a high salary	have a "green thumb"	like to be the center of attention

Job Cards

Use dice and Table 1 to fill in each of the four "Job" cards with a different job.

Job

Job

Job

Job

Skills Cards

Use dice and Table 2 to fill in each card below with three (3) different skills.

Skills
1
2
3

Skills
1
2
3

Skills
1
2
3

Skills
1
2
3