

Appendix A: Verb Cards

Simple Past	Simple Present	Simple Future
Past Perfect	Present Perfect	Future Perfect
Past Progressive	Present Progressive	Future Progressive
Past Perfect Progressive	Present Perfect Progressive	Future Perfect Progressive

Appendix B: Sentences

Children play in this park every day.	The children played in the park.	The children will play in the new park.
Birds fly.	He was born in 1960.	I will go to school tomorrow.
Karen swims three times a week.	I read a book yesterday.	My mother will visit next week.
I see a bear.	The Mariners play the Yankees next Saturday.	We will have turkey for Thanksgiving.
She likes chocolate chip mint ice cream.	We went shopping last weekend.	The children are playing in the sandbox.
I lived in Sendai for 10 years.	I am feeling ill.	She is eating lunch now.
We are going to the museum this week.	He is sleeping right now.	He was walking when the car hit him.
When I arrived, they were sleeping.	We were watching TV when the phone rang.	We were living in the U.S. last year.
My father will be leaving for work when we surprise him.	I will be collecting your essays during the exam tomorrow.	I will be in Canada in two weeks.
She has finished eating.	We have lived here for 12 years.	Linda has played soccer since she was eight.
Recently, she has become much more talkative.	The children had fallen asleep by the time we got home.	The car had stopped before the truck hit it.
They had already finished dinner by the time I arrived.	I will have written my paper before the final test.	By tomorrow we will have painted the dining room.
The children will have gone to bed by 9:00.	I had been sleeping for three hours when the phone rang.	They had been playing for half an hour when the boy broke his leg.
I have been studying for two hours.	I have been living here since 1961.	I will have been studying for two hours when you arrive.
He will have been driving for an hour by the time he gets home.

Appendix C: Verb Tenses Worksheet

In your groups, using your example sentences, write the rule that explains when you should use each type of verb and then write an example sentence for each kind of verb.

Example: Simple Past

Rule: when something is completely finished

Sentence: I ran a marathon last weekend

1. Simple Present

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

2. Simple Future

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

3. Past Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

4. Present Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

5. Future Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

6. Past Perfect

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

7. Present Perfect

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

8. Future Perfect

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

9. Past Perfect Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

10. Present Perfect Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

11. Future Perfect Progressive

Rule: _____

Sentence: _____

Appendix D: Common Verb Error Worksheet

Read the following sentences and correct the errors you find.

Example: I ~~had~~ watched TV last night.

1. My friends and I are going to the library every afternoon.
2. I study Spanish this semester.
3. In Japan most people are working 10 or more hours a day.
4. I am feel tired.
5. My mother is work at a supermarket three days a week.
6. I watch that movie.
7. While I watched TV, I heard a loud noise.
8. When I came to Japan, I already met my Japanese relatives.
9. He had died in 1979.
10. I study English since I was in elementary school.
11. I live in New York for three years.
12. She is taking care of them for three years.
13. Jean has been reading twenty pages of her book.
14. My brother will work for my father after he will finish school.
15. As soon as I will get a job, I'm going to buy a car.