The Language Teacher is the monthly publication of the Japan Association for Language Teaching (Zengoku Gogaku Kyoiku Gakkai), a non-profit organization of language teachers promoting effective language learning and teaching. JALT welcomes members of any nationality, regardless of the language taught. The editors welcome articles and book reviews on all aspects of language teaching, particularly with relevance to Japan. Contact the appropriate editor for guidelines. Employer-placed position announcements are published free of charge, but publication does not indicate endorsement of the institution by JALT. It is the position of the JALT Executive Committee that no positions-wanted announcements will be printed. All contributions to The Language Teacher must be typed, double-spaced on A4 paper, and sent to the appropriate editor. The editors reserve the right to edit all copy for length, style, and clarity, without prior notification to the authors.
